Post 4/30/70

United Press International

PRIVATE ARSENAL—Los Angeles police link this cache of more than 250 weapons and 10,000 rounds of ammunition with a plot to assassinate Superior Court Judge Alfred Gitelson, who recently ordered integration of Los Angeles schools. Five men were arrested in suburban San Fernando Valley on firearms and plotting charges. The submachine gun held by Lt. Robert A. Kell is Russian-made AK-47.